3. MY REMEMBERER IS BROKE: Sometimes you are just going to have one of those days when nothing seems to go right and you can't remember anything. This photo reflects how I feel sometimes and the accompanying verse says it all: My forgetter's getting better, But my rememberer is broke, To you that may seem funny, But to me that is no joke. For when I'm "Here" I'm wondering If I really should be "There," And when I try to think it through, I haven't got a prayer! Oft times I walk into a room, And say "What am I here for?" I wrack my brain, but all in vain!!! A zero is my score. At times I put something away where it is safe, but Gee! The person it is safest from is generally me! When shopping I may see someone, Say! "Hi" and have a chat, Then when the person walks away, I ask myself, "who was that?" Yes my forgetter's getting better, While my rememberer is broke, and it's driving me plumb crazy and that isn't any joke. Can anyone else relate??

4. WREATHS ACROSS AMERICA: Brother Sid Putnam, a member of Webb Lodge, brought this project to my attention a few months ago. Webb Lodge has decided to take part in this worthy endeavor and I thought that some of you (especially the veterans) might also want to participate. Worcester Wreath Co. and its involvement with the Arlington project back in 1992 when the company found themselves with an excess of wreaths nearing the end of the holiday season. Arrangements were made for the wreaths to be placed at Arlington National Cemetery. Now 15 years and over 75,000 wreaths later, the original group has been joined by many others who participate in the project each year. In 2006, in response to thousands of emails and letters, Worcester Wreath expanded its wreath donations nationwide. With the help of many, ceremonies were held simultaneously at 230 locations. Early in 2007 Wreaths Across America became a nonprofit. This allows those who wish to participate to sponsor wreaths. Your wreath sponsorship helps to place wreaths on Veteran's graves as well as fund Veteran and educational outreach. Our mission; Remember the fallen, Honor those who serve, and teach our children the cost of freedom. This year's ceremony will be held on December 15, 2007. For more information go online to www.wreathsassacrossamerica.org or write to Wreaths Across America, P.O. Box 256 Harrington, ME 04643. HELP IF YOU CAN.

5. TODAY: Today I will delete from my diary two days; yesterday and tomorrow. Yesterday was to learn and Tomorrow will be the consequence of what I can do today. Today I will face life with the conviction that this day will not ever return. Today is the last opportunity I have to live intensely, as no one can assure me that I will see tomorrow's sunrise. Today I will be brave enough not to let any opportunity pass me by, my only alternative is to succeed. Today I will invest my most valuable resource: My time, in the most transcendental work; My Life. Today I will resist pessimism and will conquer the world with a smile, with the positive attitude of expecting always the best. Today I will take the time to be happy and will leave my footprints and my presence in the hearts of others. Today I invite you to begin a new season where we can dream that everything we undertake is possible and we fulfill it, with joy and dignity. Have a good day and a better one tomorrow!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!

6. WE NEED YOU!!!!!!!!!!!! I have been a member of Webb Lodge for 25 years and I believe that the attendance at the regular communications has never been lower. Of course we are having the same problems as many other lodges; very few new candidates and several deaths and suspensions for non-payment of dues. We have raised about 5-6 candidates a year for the last few years but less than one third of those new members attend. Why is that? We all have busy work schedules, We all have families, We all have other obligations. I do not want to preach to anybody but “We Need You” to either come back to “YOUR” lodge or start attending “YOUR” lodge on a regular basis. Those of you who attend regularly can also help. Call one of your brothers and ask if you can pick them up or why they haven’t been to lodge in several months (Or years). Get in the habit, remember your obligation and attend the regular and call communications. We need your help, without it Webb Lodge will not survive. So Mote It Be.

7. GEORGIA/SOUTH CAROLINA EXCHANGE NIGHT: The Georgia/South Carolina Exchange Night was a huge success. The dining room and auditorium at the Scottish Rite Center was overflowing with over 300 Master Masons in attendance. The Grand Masters and Grand Lodge Line Officers from both states were in attendance. Each gave a short presentation and exchanged gifts. However; Our Grand Master Eli A. Stafford was just outstanding in his presentation. He stated that one of the most important things any man can have is his “Reputation.” All we have to do is the “Right” things in life and other people will provide our Reputation. He is without doubt, in my opinion, one of the finest men I have ever met and definitely “ONE OF THE FAITHFUL FEW.”
