1. SUSPENSIONS: Just a reminder that the month of June is the month stipulated in our By-laws (Article VII, Section 1) in which those brethren who have not paid their dues for the preceding and current year may be suspended at the regular communication by motion or resolution and without trial, unless he can show just cause why he should not pay the same. Brethren, please check your dues card and make sure that you are NOT in this situation. If you are, please notify me or any officer of Webb Lodge and we will be happy to review your case. As of this writing there are several brethren who are in this situation. SO MOTE IT BE.

2. GEORGIA CAPITOL CORNERSTONE EXHIBIT: This is a photo of the Cornerstone Exhibit which Webb Lodge contributed to. The Collar and Apron of Past Grand Master John S. Davidson, who was a member of Webb Lodge, is displayed in this exhibit. He wore this collar and apron during the laying of the cornerstone of the Georgia Capitol Building in the late 1800's. The Georgia Capitol Restoration Committee requested that Webb Lodge let them display this Original Collar and Apron and they have been on display since 1999. The contract has been renewed each year so that the thousands of museum visitors each year see these artifacts. If you are in the Atlanta area, stop in at the Capitol and go to the fourth floor and view the contributions the fraternity made to the Capitol.

HAPPY FATHERS' DAY FROM THE OFFICERS OF WEBB LODGE #166, JUNE 20TH, 2010.

HAVE A HAPPY AND SAFE 4TH OF JULY!!!

3. LAUGHTER IS STILL, ISN'T IT??? THE BEST MEDICINE: 1. License plate on a woman's postal jeep: "FEMAIL." 2. My uncle is a rancher in Virginia (just right down the road from Brother Emil Klingenfus) and on his truck, which tows cattle, is a license plate that reads, "U8MYCOW." 3. Here are a few of my favorite sayings I have seen printed on T-Shirts: a) Consciousness: that annoying time between naps. b) Failure is not an option. It comes bundled with the software. 4. A pedestrian is hit by a bus on a busy city street. Somebody get me a priest, the man gasps. Out of the crowd steps an elderly man. I'm not a priest, he says. I'm not even Catholic but I lived behind St. Agnes Church for 50 years and every night I overhear their services. Maybe I can be of some comfort. The man kneels down next to the victim and says in a solemn voice: B-14, I-19, N-38, G-54, O-72. 5. A sign seen at a funeral home in Philadelphia: We would rather do business with 1,000 Al-Qaida terrorists than a single American. 6. An 85 year old man and a 79 year old woman are excited about their decision to get married. They go for a stroll to discuss the wedding and on the way pass a drugstore. The old man suggests that they go in. Do you sell heart medication? He asks the man behind the counter. Of course, the pharmacist answers. How about medicine for circulation? All kinds, the pharmacist replies. Medicine for rheumatism? Definitely. How about Viagra? Of course. Medicine for memory? Yes, a large variety. Perfect, the old man says, we'd like to register here for our wedding gifts!
4. GOOD READING: A few verses to live by; 1. You have got to dance like nobody's watching and love like it is never going to hurt. 2. Our lives are filled with simple joys and blessings without end and one of the greatest joys in life, is to have a friend. 3. Do more than exist: Love. Do more than touch: Feel. Do more than look: Observe. Do more than read: Absorb. Do more than hear: Listen. Do more than listen: Understand.
5. FOR LOVERS OF WORDS: 1. What's the definition of a will? It's a dead giveaway. 2. A backward poet writes inverse. 3. A chicken crossing the road is poultry in motion. 4. The man who fell into an upholstery machine is fully recovered. 5. Every calendar's days are numbered. 6. The short fortuneteller who escaped from prison was a small medium at large. 7. Those that get too big for their britches will be exposed in the end. 8. If you don't pay the exorcist, you will be repossessed.
6. I SEE YOU HAVE TRAVELED SOME: Whenever you may by chance to be, wherever you may roam, far away in foreign lands, or just at "Home Sweet Home". It always gives you pleasure, it makes your heart strings hum, just to hear the words of cheer; "I see you've traveled some." When you get a Brother's greeting, when he takes you by the hand, it thrills you with a feeling, which you don't fully understand. You feel the bond of Brotherhood, that tie that's sure to come, when you hear the Brother say in a friendly way, "I see you've traveled some." When you are a stranger, in strange lands all alone, when fate has left you stranded, dead broke and far from home, it thrills you and makes you numb, when the Brother says with a grip of fellowship, "I see you've traveled some." Then when your final summons comes, to take one last long trip, adorned with Lambskin Apron White, along with gems of Fellowship, the Tyler at the Golden Gate, with Square, Rule and Plumb, will size up your pin and say "Walk in; I see you've traveled some."

7. GRAND MASTER'S SCOTTISH RITE REUNION 2010; Two members of Webb Lodge were candidates (and now are two of the newest Scottish Rite Masons in the Valley of Augusta) in the historic Grand Master's Class of 2010. All 6 valleys in the state (Augusta, Atlanta, Albany, Macon, Savannah and Columbus) came together at the Atlanta Masonic Center and held a joint one day class. Congratulations to Jack P. Goldenberg and Michael L. Jarrett for becoming new Masters of the Royal Secret. Below are a couple of photos from the class; the latter made the cover of the June Masonic Messenger Publication of the Grand Lodge of Georgia. In the photo directly below, Michael is 3rd from the right and Jack is 5th from the right.
