"Georgia Southern University," John yelled back. 3. I wanted to inform one of our Financial Trustees, Ted Pacheco, who is a lawyer, about the new sushi bar in downtown Augusta that caters exclusively to lawyers. It's called SOSUMI.

Women pack but they don't carry. (Cosby) 4. Power is nothing unless you can turn it into influence. (Rice) 5. Anybody who is really successful has doubts. (Bruckheimer) 6. You can get old pretty young if you don't take care of yourself. (Berra) 7. The most important part of a story is the ending. No one reads a book to get to the middle. (Crisp) 8. When you have no one in your life who you can call and say "I'm scared," then your life is uninteresting, unfulfilling and superficial. You need somebody you can trust enough to say "I need your help." (Soderbergh)

8. LAUGH, IT'S GOOD FOR YOU: An eighty year old couple is having problems remembering things, so they go to the doctor to get checked out. They describe the problems they are each having with their memory. After checking the couple out, the doctor tells them that they are physically okay, but that they might want to start writing things down to help them remember. The couple thanks the doctor and leaves. Later that night while watching TV, the old man gets up from his chair. His wife asks, "Where are you going?" He replies "to the kitchen." She asks him for a bowl of ice cream and he replies, sure. She then asks him, Don't you think you should write it down so you can remember? He says "No I can remember that. She then says "Well, I also would like some strawberries on top. You had better write that down cause I know you'll forget." He says "I can remember that; you want a bowl of ice cream with strawberries." She replies "Well I also would like whipped cream on top. I know you will forget that so write it down." With irritation in his voice he says "I don't need to write that down, I can remember that." He fumes off into the kitchen. When he returns twenty minutes later he hands her a plate of bacon and eggs. She stares at the plate for a moment and says "You forgot my toast!!!"
