1. QUOTABLE QUOTES: 1. You can't write poetry on the computer. (Tarantino) 2. Love makes intellectual pretzels of us all. (Bird) 3. If a problem has no solution, it may not be a problem, but a fact, not to be solved, but to be coped with over time. (Shimon Peres) 4. I would rather work with someone who's good at their job but doesn't like me, than someone who likes me but is a ninny. (Donaldson) 5. The moment of victory is much too short to live for that and nothing else. (Navratilova) 6. What is a family, after all, except memories...haphazard and precious as the contents of a catch-all drawer in the kitchen. (Oates) 7. If you are not criticized, you may not be doing much. (Rumsfeld)

2. NEWSLETTER ARTICLES: If anyone has an article which they think might be appropriate for publication in this newsletter please send it to me at the above email address. I would be happy to look it over and publish, if suitable.

3. UNITY COURT NO. 21 O/A FUNDRAISER: The Order of the Amaranth (the group who cooks dinner for us each month) is having a Steak Dinner Fundraiser on November 16, 2013, at the Scottish Rite Center, 2553 Washington Road. See one of the members for information and tickets. Try to support this event, as the proceeds go to Diabetic Research.

4. A POINT TO PONDER: If I hadn't had children, I probably would have had more money and material things. I probably would have gone more places, gotten more sleep, pampered myself more. My life would have been much more boring and predictable. As a result of being a parent, I have laughed harder, cried more often. I have worried more and hurried more. I've had less sleep, but somehow I've had more fun. I've learned more, grown more. My heart has ached harder and I've loved to a capacity beyond my imagination. I have given more of myself, but I have derived more meaning from life. Was it worth it? YES!!!

5. SOME WORDS OF WISDOM: 1. Accept that some days you're the pigeon, and some days you're the statue. 2. I can please only one person per day. Today is not your day; Tomorrow isn't looking good either. 3. On the keyboard of life, always keep one finger on the escape key. 4. There are very few personal problems that cannot be solved through a suitable application of high explosives. 5. Good news is just life's way of keeping you off balance. 6. Politicians and diapers have one thing in common. They should both be changed regularly and for the same reason. 7. In just two days, tomorrow will be yesterday. 8. I plan on living forever; so far, so good. 9. A day without sunshine is like night. 10. Not afraid of heights; afraid of widths.

6. HOW TO PLANT A MASONIC GARDEN: This was taken out of the Scottish Rite Journal and was written by Joseph W. MacIntyre: First plant four rows of peas: Preparedness, Promptness, Perseverance, Politeness. Next plant three rows of squash: Squash gossip, Squash criticism, Squash indifference. Then plant four rows of lettuce: Let us be Truthful, Let us be Unselfish, Let us be Loyal, Let us be Thankful. No garden is complete without turnips; Turn up for Volunteer Work, Turn up with a Smile, and Turn up with Determination. Let's all get to work on our garden!

10. TODAY: Today I will delete from my diary two days; yesterday and tomorrow. Yesterday was to learn and Tomorrow will be the consequence of what I can do today. Today I will face life with the conviction that this day will not ever return. Today is the last opportunity I have to live intensely, as no one can assure me that I will see tomorrow's sunrise. Today I will be brave enough not to let any opportunity pass me by, my only alternative is to succeed. Today I will invest my most valuable resource: My time, in the most transcendental work; My Life. Today I will resist pessimism and will conquer the world with a smile, with the positive attitude of expecting always the best. Today I will take the time to be happy and will leave my footprints and my presence in the hearts of others. Today I invite you to begin a new season where we can dream that everything we undertake is possible and we fulfill it, with joy and dignity. Have a good day and a better one tomorrow!!!
