5. HUMOR IS GOOD FOR THE SOUL; THINGS I WISH I HAD SAID: 1. Depression is merely anger without enthusiasm. 2. The only substitute for good manners is fast reflexes. 3. I drive way too fast to worry about cholesterol. 4. Ambition is a poor excuse for not having enough sense to be lazy. 5. If everything seems to be going well, you have obviously overlooked something.

6. GEORGE WASHINGTON'S BIRTHDAY CELEBRATION: The 10th District Officers will be hosting a celebration of George Washington's Birthday at the Scottish Rite Center on Saturday, February 15, 2014. Coffee and Donuts at 9:00 am with the program beginning at 10:00 am. The program will consist of the Masonic Play, "The Traitor." Set after the end of the revolution, during a dream of Benedict Arnold, George Washington, along with Brother Lafayette and several other prominent American and English Masons meet to honor General Washington and put the war behind them. Before long, they attempt to unravel a mystery amongst them, which culminates in a visit from Benedict Arnold himself. The intense and spirited discussion about loyalty and treason, bravery and cowardice, common good and self promotion is an exciting topic that will bring up many topics of conversation for months to come. All Master Masons and their wives are invited to attend. Join us that day for a great meal, entertainment and fellowship.

He has written extensively on military Masonry and has lectured in both the United States, Canada, and Great Britain; his first book, The Better Angels of Our Nature: Freemasonry in the American Civil War (University of Alabama Press: 2010), is an in-depth examination of the role of the fraternity during the war, and the first scholarly treatment of that subject. He is also the author of Bro. Brother's Journal (Macoy, 2012), a fictional account of an inept Kansas City Mason at the turn of the twentieth century. The date is June 28th, 2014 at the Scottish Rite Center, 2553 Washington Road, Augusta, Ga 30904; time to be determined. A steak dinner will be served and it will be limited to the first 230 reservations. The cost is $20.00 per person and your check is your reservation. 9. QUOTABLE QUOTES: 1. Map out your future, but do it in pencil. (Jovi) 2. It doesn't take a lot of strength to hang on. It takes a lot of strength to let go. (Watts) 3. Women pack but they don't carry. (Cosby) 4. Power is nothing unless you can turn it into influence. (Rice) 5. Anybody who is really successful has doubts. (Bruckheimer) 6. You can get old pretty young if you don't take care of yourself. (Berra) 7. The most important part of a story is the ending. No one reads a book to get to the middle. (Crisp) 8. When you have no one in your life who you can call and say, "I'm scared," then your life is uninteresting, unfulfilling and superficial. You need somebody you can trust enough to say, "I need your help." (Soderbergh)

10. FELLOWCRAFT DEGREE: Webb Lodge #166 will be conferring the FC Degree on Tuesday, February 11, 2014, beginning at 7:00 P.M. We will have refreshments during the break between sections. Our Senior Warden, Richard Williamson will be conferring the Fellowcraft Degree on at least three of our candidates. Brethren: We need you to attend these degrees. It is not very impressive for our candidates to see no one sitting on the sidelines during the conferral. Please make the effort if you are available that evening to come out and participate. Hope to see you all there.

A man knew he was in big trouble when he forgot his wedding anniversary. His wife said, "Tomorrow there better be something in the driveway for me that goes from zero to 200 in 2 seconds flat." The next morning, the wife found in the driveway a brand new bathroom scale. Funeral arrangements for the husband have been set for this Saturday.
